Emmaus

He spoke He cited scripture
And our hearts they burned with fire.
As the prophecies of ancient times
Became truth within our minds.
And our spirits once being downcast,
Now took on wings and flew.
But the author of this conversation
Neither of us knew.

We were turning to Emmaus
And it seemed that He would go
Farther on His journey,
Though the sun was sinking low.
So we asked Him to come with us
And stay with us the night,
And in the breaking of the bread
The Lord was recognised.
