

Your So Busy

D F#m
Put up new curtains, paint the wall,
Bm E7
Put new carpets on the floor.
D E7 A D
Put in new windows and hang a new front door.
D F#m Bm E7
Your so busy working hard on the things that you have planned,
D E7 A7 D G D
Your building your house on weak and shifting sand,

Chorus

F#m Bm E7 G
Can't you see your life slipping away,
D E7 A7 D G D
Your gonna wish you'd given time to the saviour one day. X2

Your life is run to the sound of a bell,
You put in all the hours you can.
You dance around to the tune of another man.
Your so busy earning all the money that you can spend,
Well the wages of sin are death for you my friend.

Your jetting off to a place in the sun,
You'll spend the whole time on the sand.
Just lie on the beach and get your body tanned.
Your so busy dreaming of the sun and the sky so blue,
Wake up oh sleeper and Christ will shine on you.

Twenty press ups run a couple of mile
And then twenty press ups more,
Your body is aching but your soul is aching more.
Your so busy building up the part that will decay
When Jesus gives life that will never ever pass away.
